

Hoppy Easter!

I hope this letter finds you surrounded by joy and excitement.

As I bounce around preparing for the big day, I wanted to send you a special message.

Your kindness and love for all things fluffy and colorful have caught my bunny ears, and I can't wait to visit your home on Easter morning.

I've been busy filling baskets with chocolate eggs, jellybeans, and a sprinkle of magic.

Remember to be extra good and share the joy with your family and friends.

I'll be watching with my bunny friends to see your kindness shine!

Wishing you a basket full of happiness and a day as sweet as a carrot.

Fluffy hugs, The Easter Bunny 🐰
